Message from the Director

The second quarter of each year in the Series is the busiest quarter annually with eight Series races to choose from. This is a very popular time of the year for running with what most people think of as "good running weather." So with eight Series races, how many did you run?

At the Old Goats 50K Rob McNair finished first in 4:58:24. Michelle Barton finished fifth overall and was the first woman in 5:30:24.

At the Old Goats 50-Miler Kiera Henninger was first with Marisa Willment was the second Series female. Ted Liao was the first Series male.

The Leona Divide 50-miler is always very competitive. Runners travel from all over the United states to participate here. Tom Nielson was fourth overall in 7:41:47. Scott Mills was the first senior male in 8:02:23 and eighth overall. Michelle Barton was the first Series female and third woman overall. Twenty-four Series men and nine Series woman finished Leona!

The first Saturday in May was the Wild Wild West 50K. Weather was chilly at the start, but warms up fast as you climb the course from the start. Series finishers included Ken Dempster, Ted Liao, Gabor Kozinc, Steve Funke, Pat Knoff, George Velasco, John Radich, Fred Pollard, Leigh Corbin, Yen Darcy, Lorraine Gesitz, and Nancy Tinker.

The PCT 50-miler was next on the calendar and RD John Martinez works hard at making the race better every year. Tracy Moore was first in 7:32 and Michelle Barton was the first female in 9:05 and 40 seconds ahead of Keira Henninger.

Bishop High Sierra 50K and 50-Miler was hot...very hot. Lambert Timmermans was the first Series male in 10:29:00. Xy Weiss and Leigh Corbin were the two Series female finishers.

The Shadow of the Giants at Fish Camp was next and Rob McNair, Gilbert Salazar, and Michelle Barton were the Series top-ten finishers.

San Diego 100 was hot and the schedule change made for tuff race conditions, yet the race's overall firsts were Series members. Tom Nielson was first in 19:26 and Patrick Sweeney was fourth in 22:16. Gina Natrea finished first female at 25:44.

At Holcomb 33 Matt Dickie was the first Series male in 5:52:30 and Mary Lou Lacky was first Series female in 8:15:17.

Mt Disappointment 50/50, Bulldog 50K, Angeles Crest 100, and Noble Canyon 50K are the next Series events for the Third Quarter.

Mt Disappointment 50-mile is the 2008 So. CA USA Track & Field 50-Mile Trail Championship. Join USATF now and be part of our 50-mile championship run.

Happy Trails...enjoy the journey!
